RSVP Center of Essex and Hudson Counties: Hudson County Volunteer Stations

Reading Bridge Program – Volunteers will read to the same small groups of students k-2 once a week for 1 hour throughout the school year using a read aloud format that supplements the school's regular curriculum. Positions available in PS22 on Friday mornings from 9:30 – 10:30.

Angela Cares – Volunteers can provide support to office staff in the following areas: event planning, fund raising, food drives, grant writing, as well as other professional areas. Volunteers can also participate in their senior programs: Adopt-A-Grand Friend, Youth Volunteer Workshop, J.O.Y.S, and Here4Seniors.

Bayonne Economic Opportunity Foundation – Volunteers will assist in preparing or delivering meals to home bound seniors in Bayonne through their Meals on Wheels program.

Better Tomorrows - The Better Tomorrows impact-driven social service model is aimed at fostering economic stability, educational success, healthy lifestyles and strong communities. By providing a continuum of direct support to affordable housing residents and the neighboring communities, Better Tomorrows' place-based programming and case management build safe and nurturing environments and uplift youth, adults, families, and seniors.

Hudson County Superior Court Building – Volunteers will have the opportunity to choose from 5 different programs that ranges from working with children and their families alongside the Hudson County Superior Judge to supervising visitations with non-custodial parents.

Liberty Science Center – Volunteers will be placed throughout the Center's exhibition and explaining the exhibit to young children and their families. This position requires being on your feet for 4 hours which includes a 30 minute break and a commitment of 120 hours.

Secaucus Senior Centre – Volunteers will assist the Centre with daily programs for seniors, such as their Sewing Circle, Knitting Circle, Bingo and other daily events. The Centre also runs a Friendly Visiting program where a volunteer can visit a homebound senior in their community.

To apply for any of these positions, contact Stephanie Grove at 973-637-1766 or sgrove@jfsmetrowest.org.
