

JFS DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

Jewish Family Service of MetroWest NJ is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors. This policy informs donors of the way their information is used and provides them with the opportunity to remove their names from our mailing lists, if they wish to do so.

We collect the following information from our donors:

- Contact information (names, complete addresses, phone numbers and email addresses)
- Payment information (credit card information is used only for payment processing and is not retained, unless we are requested to do so by the donor)
- Information the donor wishes to share(comments, questions, suggestions)

How our donor information is used:

We use donor information to complete gift transactions, communicate with you and update you on JFS news and events. Credit card information is used only for payment processes and is not retained, unless we are requested to do so by the donor. We use any comments offered by the donor to provide information requested and take seriously suggestions made. We respect donor wishes with regard to acknowledgement and publication of any gift.

There is no sharing of personal information:

Jewish Family Service of MetroWest NJ will not sell, rent or lease your personal information to other organizations. We assure our donors that the identity of all our donors is kept confidential. Use of donor information is strictly limited to the internal purpose of Jewish Family Service of MetroWest NJ and only to further the organization's activities and purpose.

Donors can remove their names from our mailing lists:

We do not wish to send unwanted mail to our donors. Donors may contact us directly to be removed from our mailing lists.

Questions about our donor privacy policy will be answered by sending an email to info@jfsmetrowest.org
